Interesting European Intelligence.

PARIS, August 8.—An imperial decree has appeared, convoking the Senate and Corps Legislatif to-morrow.

The report of the Minister of War, approved by the Empress, is published in the Journal Officiel. The Minister says: "Existing circumstances oblige us to provide for the defence of the capital and to garrison it with fresh troops, allowing all those which the Emperor keeps under his orders to contend in the open country against the enemy, emboldened by his first success to the point of marching on Paris. But Paris will not be taken unawares. Exterior forts received their armament some time ago, and already we have commenced to arm the walls around the city. A state of siege has been declared, to facilitate the execution of certain works, which will be commenced to-morrow. Thus, exterior forts are in a condition to sustain a regular siege, and in a few days the entire citadel of the walls will be found in a similar condition. Neither strong arms nor devotion of capital will be wanting, and the fortifications will be placed in a condition to resist attack. A project of law will be presented to the Chambers, incorporating in the National and Mobile Gardes citizens under thirty years of age who are not actually members."

LONDON, August 8.—It is said that the Emperor Napoleon's attack is a return of his old disease, provoked by equestrianism.

The American Generals Sheridan and Forsyth have gone to the continent. Sir John Thwaites, chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Works, is dead. John Jones, the murderer of the Marshall family at Denham, who was executed this morning, at Aylesbury, died protesting his innocence.

Count Bismarck, in a letter, takes special pains to deny having encouraged the plans of Gen. Turr against Austria. He says Turr is not a person to be trusted with political confidence.

French despatches to-day represent that actual hostilities are momentarily suspended, but a rumor prevails that the Prussian armies have concentrated, and a battle is raging before Metz. At last accounts Marshal Moltke was at Staverne. His corps suffered less than was at first supposed. The report that Gen. Colson was killed by his side, and that Gen. Raoul is missing, is confirmed.

The Pall Mall Gazette says the result of this battle means the triumph of the Prussians in the war.

The German press generally consider the French loss irretrievable, but there are three French corps which have not yet been under fire.

A movement of retreat for the purpose of concentrating has been effected, and a new line of defence taken up in the passages of the Vosges. A general battle in front of Metz is considered probable to-morrow. The Prussians are moving in that direction by forced marches.

The defenses of Paris are officially reported as nearly ready to resist the heaviest assault, and it is said that 150,000 men are ready to fill up the ranks of the army in the field, and that the arming in the field, and that the arming of all adults is contemplated.

In the House of Lords, to-day, Earl Granville stated that the neutrality of Belgium was now assured, the powers now at war concurring in a pledge to respect it. He recited, at great length, the course of negotiations undertaken by the British Government, and brought to this satisfactory result. Lord Halifax said the Government would not prohibit the transportation of arms. In the House of Commons, to-night, no allusion was made to the war or kindred topics.

A Brussels despatch says the King's speech from the throne contains a statement that France and Prussia have given a written pledge to observe the neutrality of Belgium.

The condition of Paris is believed to be dangerous. The Globe says: "The Prussian envoy insists on criminal proceedings against British pilots serving on French war vessels. The demand has been refused." The remainder of the Garde Nationale is to be incorporated with the Garde Mobile. The corps will be organized in a single body at once.

LONDON, August 9.—The following official dispatch is dated at Hamburg, Palatinate, 4:25 a. m., August 8.—Yesterday, after the battle of Werth, the enemy retreated in the greatest disorder. The French artillery endeavored to make a stand at Needeboun, but that town was taken by the Prussians.

The German troops held both banks of the Saar, having occupied Sajuquen and Forbach, after slight resistance by the French.

ROME, August 9.—The last of the French army of occupation left Civita Vecchia to-day, in the steamers Magellan and Panama for Marseillaise and the seat of war.

PARIS, August 9.—The Corps Legislatif meets to-day. The ministry are making stirring appeals, and claim their ability to arm 2,000,000 men, and that Paris is invulnerable. Americans in Paris are receiving their passports. Marines and soldiers still in Algeria have been ordered to the field. There is much agitation in Paris, but no disorder. Bazaine has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the French army.

PARIS, August 9.—3 P. M.—There is an immense uprising of the people of France to repel the Prussian invasion. It is said officially that 2,000,000 men are ready to march, and that the reserve corps will number 1,000,000. The people are clamorous for organization and leaders.

MUNICH, August 9.—The King of Bavaria makes the following report concerning the battle of Werth: Early on the morning of the 7th instant, just as our troops had left their bivouac to march on Engelzheim, the thunder of cannon was heard. Our movements were hastened and we soon came up with the First Corps, which was engaged with the enemy. The Bavarian troops were placed in action at once, and participated in the assault upon the heights of Guemene, which were carried about 5 o'clock, the French being repulsed, driven back in disorder and with heavy loss. The action was serene and sanguinary. The King issued a congratulatory order to the Second Corps, thanking them for their splendid conduct and gallantry.

PARIS, August 9.—Their has been no battle to-day. The corps of General Failly, which was not engaged in the recent action, is the rallying point of the army. The proclamation of the Ministry was received with enthusiasm. The Minister of the Interior has taken measures to have despatches bulletined at the Bourse and mayoralty houses. Measures will be taken at once for strengthening the fortifications of Paris.

PARIS, August 9.—Le Volontaire says General Changarnier, as soon as he heard of the affair at Weissenburg, telegraphed asking for a command. This morning's papers say nothing is certain concerning the course of Austria; Prussia is keeping her quiet with promises, just now.

The Patrie says it was rumored that the bourse would be closed to-day, at noon. Nothing of the sort has taken place. There have been no disturbances. The authorities having been warned that an international society of working men intended to make demonstrations, took precautions to prevent them, which would have been effected if any outbreak was really contemplated.

ROME, August 9.—The embarkation of French troops, which was completed yesterday, was retarded by the storm. But for this, the last of the troops would have gone several days ago.

PARIS, August 9.—The Patrie says the Government calls upon all former officers and soldiers having served in the armies of France to take their grades in the regiments of volunteers, or of the Garde Mobile, which are to go to the front immediately. This request has been greeted enthusiastically, and numbers are responding to the call. Gen. Changarnier left his residence this morning to go to seek a command at headquarters. Thousands of people accompanied him to the railway.

LONDON, August 9.—3:30 P. M.—A Paris correspondent of the Manchester Examiner telegraphs that Italy and Austria each send 100,000 men to aid the French.

The Empress Eugenie, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, is preparing for flight.

The army at Metz is still undergoing thorough reorganization. The London Times ascribes the French disaster to the Emperor's obstinacy in refusing sound military advice and to his illness. Parties in France will make the Emperor pay the penalty of his ill success. His name is already ignored in acts by which the regency seeks to rally the people. Things arrange themselves as if he was not expected to resume his power, as if testing how he may be dispensed with altogether. The only question is who shall first utter the word "abdication!"

American Affairs.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—The first comptroller gives notice that, under the provisions of the appropriation bill for the year ending June 30, 1871, appropriations made for the current year can be expended only for debts and liabilities accrued, and in the fulfillment of contracts made prior to July 1, 1870. This does not apply to permanent or indefinite appropriations, nor to those which have a longer duration by law. Disbursing officers must observe these provisions strictly, and must render separate accounts for disbursements made for debts and liabilities accrued under contracts made prior to July 1, 1870, and for payments made for the service of the current fiscal year.

The great yacht race for the Queen's cup came off to-day. New York, August 8.—Osgood's Magic won the cup—time, 3:32; Dauntless second, 3:34; America sixth, 3:45; Cambria, disabled, tenth, 3:59. Immigration last week reached only 3,631, showing that the war is having a great effect.

New York, August 9.—A man, supposed to be the murderer of Nathan, was arrested in Nyack, last night, and will be brought here this morning.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Internal revenue to-day $318,000. The recent decision of the Treasury Department, that vessels arriving in waters of the United States cannot change their clearance papers, is adhered to. This is in consequence of some vessels cleared for New York having changed papers to New Jersey ports, in order to avoid quarantine regulations.

RALIGH, August 9.—Returns come in slowly. Enough is known to put the election of five Democratic Congressmen beyond a doubt. Thirty State Senators and seventy-five Commissioners were elected by the Democrats, certain, and probably more. The Deputy United States Marshal served on Kirk, yesterday, writs of habeas corpus, issued by Judge Brooks, to bring his prisoners before him at Salisbury. Kirk replied that he would answer after consulting Holden.
